Athens County Houses Wrecked; Snipers Fire on Miner's House.

By The Associated Press
ATHENS, O., Sept. 8.—Three dynamite explosions rocked Athens county homes in a renewal of violence in the seven-month-old coal strike last night. Snipers fired on one house, but no one was injured. His wife and two children were in the house.

Several windows were shattered at the home of Guy Gardner, hoisting engineer for the Manhattan Coal Co., when dynamite was exploded in his front yard.

A fractured skull caused Kraasch's death shortly after the accident. The three other victims are in McKelick hospital in Kenton. They are Mr. and Mrs. J. C. ACTION IS DELAYED ON BUS APPLICATION

Examiner Continues Hearing on Four Petitions for Route to Columbus.

After hearing an application of the Marion-Lima Transit Co. to extend its line from Norton to Columbus by two different routes, an attorney-examiner for the public utilities commission in Columbus yesterday continued applications of four other companies to extend their lines for at least 30 days.

One of the remaining four companies could not be given hearing on its application because of failure to advertise the hearing. Consequently the hearings were postponed. H. M. Rose, president of the Marion-Lima Transit Co., said today.

All applications were based on the probability of the Columbus, Delaware & Marion Traction Co. abandoning service.

No action on the Marion-Lima Transit Co. application is expected until the other applicants have been given hearing. Rose said. A definite date for the other hearings has not been set.

The other four applications for line extensions are those of G. W. Ward of Bucyrus to extend his bus line from Bucyrus to Columbus, the Washington Valley Traction Co. of Columbus to extend from Bucyrus to Columbus, the Galien-Bainfield Traction Co. of Galien to extend from Bucyrus to Marion and the Meigs Brothers Transportation Co. of Marion to extend from Marion to Columbus.

TERMS UNCERTAIN AS OHIO SCHOOLS OPEN

Many Cities Face Financial Difficulties Despite Cuts in Operating Costs.

By The Associated Press
Ohio schools, swinging wide their doors for a new year, have found an economy warning so determined that some of them may close long before scheduled time.

Budgets passed far below the financial requirements of a nine-month term have forced some school boards to order delayed openings and earlier closings that may cut the school year to eight and in a few instances to even fewer months.

Lack of funds caused by delayed tax distributions moved the Dayton public school opening up to Sept. 26. Even then, the orders are for operation of the high schools only three days a week and grade schools only half of each day.

In Cleveland, schools reopened Monday with a registration approximating 60,000 and some of the less fortunate suburbs feared financial difficulties might force an early closing. Salary cuts for teachers of from 10 to 20 per cent have reduced the payroll by $2,500,000.

Columbus enrollment of 41,202 was 865 below the opening enrollment of other years. Like some other cities, it dispensed with kindergarten.

Youngstown delayed its opening two weeks and planned to close the schools two weeks early. Salaries there were cut 10 per cent.

Toledo set its opening for Monday but was not certain it would be able to finance a full term despite a 10 per cent salary slash for married instructors.

An increase of 1,000 in enrollment to 53,725 children was registered at Cincinnati where the teaching staff was reduced 40 by neglecting to fill vacancies.

Parochial schools reported little difficulty, those of the Cincinnati archdiocese preparing for 50,500 pupils and the 5,000 enrolled for the opening at Dayton Tuesday facing no curtailment of activities.

G. O. P. LEADERS ATTACK WHITE

Ingalls and Cooper Say State Expenditures Increase; Blame Democrats.

RALLY AT MT. VERNON

Republican Party Pledges Tax Reforms and Governmental Economies.

By The Associated Press
MT. VERNON, O., Sept. 8.—A united attack by state Republican leaders was made last night on the Democratic administration of Gov. George White.

David S. Ingalls, the G. O. P. gubernatorial candidate, and the man who opposed him for that place on the ticket, former Gov. Myers V. Cooper, both attempted to show in addresses before a Seventeenth district Republican rally that state expenditures had increased due to the Democratic party's governmental policies.

"Four of the last five governors of Ohio," said Ingalls, "have been Democrats and state expenditures have risen in that time until taxes have become an insupportable burden."

Both he and Cooper refuted Democratic claims that expenditures during Governor White's administration had been $8,000,000 less than during Cooper's term in the state capital.

"If he (White) continues as he has been doing," Ingalls continued, "he will turn over the administration of the state to the next year with a deficit of over 10 million dollars incurred by mismanagement." He asserted the cost of state government was "enormously" more than the state revenues last year.

Cooper, saying the Republican party was pledged to tax reform and governmental economies, contended the election of Ingalls "would insure to the benefit of every tax paying unit in Ohio."

EX-MAYOR HELD ON CHARGE OF ASSAULT

Aged Woman Says Former Youngstown Official Struck Her with Mace.

By The Associated Press
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 8.—An aged woman's whispered statement, "Billy did it," today formed the basis for a charge of assault with intent to kill against former Mayor William G. Reese, 58.

From her hospital bed, Mrs. Anna Washok, 77, murmured the words as police prepared to release Reese in the belief the woman was injured in a fall from a chair she was using while hanging curtains.

Mrs. Washok, recovering consciousness late yesterday, signed an affidavit outlining the incidents on which authorities based the formal charge. Reese, who served as mayor for 15 months after George Utta resigned the office in 1922, pleaded not guilty to the charge. Bond was fixed at $2,000, which had not been furnished this morning.

Reese explained to officials, they said, that he had handled affairs for Mrs. Washok, a friend of his wife's grandmother for many years. He went to her home Tuesday to give her a receipt for payment of a water bill, he said, and found the door locked and heard the woman moaning for help.

Mrs. Washok said her will be requited a piece of property to Reese. She said Reese had struck her with what looked like a policeman's mace and denied she had fallen down stairs.

At the hospital today it was said her condition was "fair."

School Job Fight Cools, Ousted Man Holds Office

By The Associated Press
ZANESVILLE, O., Sept. 8.—The fight for the right to hold the office of superintendent of Muskingum county schools cooled off today and as a result, the schools at Chanderhill resumed. Charles Westcott, one of the claimants to the county job, returned to his place at principal of the Chanderhill school and F. D. Ring, the other claimant of the county office, took it over unopposed.

Westcott returned to the post he resigned after county school board members ousted him, when they threatened to appoint a new principal.

While both Ring and Westcott claimed the office yesterday, the Chanderhill school remained closed because it had no guiding hand.

The Chanderhill school janitor, entrusted with the school keys, refused to open the doors. Hundreds of children accordingly camped about the school yard until they were fired yesterday, then went home.

Ring, with the backing of the state school board, prepared to present to the supreme court an allegation that he was illegally ousted from the county superintendent's office, which he has refused to vacate despite a 24-hour-a-day vigil by Westcott.

OHIO CITY VOTES FINE ON HIKERS

By The Associated Press
ASHTABULA, O., Sept. 8.—A price was placed on hitchhiking in Ahtabula today.

A city ordinance providing a fine of $1 to $5 for persons who stand in the roadway and ask for a ride was ordered enforced by City Manager Fred R. Hughes after a financial report of the city railway line showed dwindling revenues.

Boulder, said Mayor Hughes, persons who "though" rides downtown or elsewhere are a nuisance to motorists.

MARYSVILLE PASTOR ASPIRANT FOR OFFICE

Opposes Re-election of President in Ohio Convention of American Lutherans.

By The Associated Press
DAYTON, O., Sept. 8.—Dr. Emmanuel Popen of Columbus was opposed for re-election as president of the Ohio district convention of the American Lutheran church today by Rev. August Zeh of Marysville.

The delegates, assured the Memorial convention at Fond du Lac, Wis., next month, would be asked to elect the church budget a third, also had before them four candidates for vice president and two for each of the offices of secretary, treasurer, stipendiary and executive committee.

The recommendation for a 33 1/3 per cent cut in the church budget was made, Rev. Dr. C. Hein, general president, said as the only means to avoid a serious deficit in the treasury.

He also expressed the opinion a proposed merger of the theological seminaries at Columbus, O., and Dubuque, Ia., would be talked at the Fond du Lac convention.

Rev. George Bauschick of Ames and Rev. E. J. Klamforth of Columbus were the candidates for secretary and W. S. Yaker of Delaware and Edward Huckle of Columbus the candidates for treasurer.

ENDS SILENCE

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Sept. 8.—The doubtful are gradually falling into line. Calvin Coolidge had had everybody on the anxious seat for months as to who he would support in the November handicap.

Campaign managers and politicians have been dogging his rather tentative footsteps. But it took not a politician, but a commercial minded gentleman (proprietor of America's largest nickelodeon, George Horne Loewer, not with words, or editorial persuasion, but with his signature on a small piece of paper, payable at a bank, to break Mr. Coolidge's dogged doubt.

Printed indorsement of the Republican party is perhaps the largest paid advertisement in favor of any purely commercial product, since Amos and Andy said themselves "down the river" for toothpaste.

Henry Bern Continues Inquiry After Conferring with Brother's Widow.

By The Associated Press
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 8.—The strange suicide of Paul Bern, Hollywood movie executive, produced another mystifying angle today when George G. Clark, ex-Los Angeles life insurance man and Bern's insurance adviser, said here that Bern was married 10 years ago and never divorced from a woman who is a mental incompetent in a New York sanatorium.

Clark said that insurance policies held by Bern are payable in a trust fund, handled by a New York trust company, for the benefit of this woman.

The insurance man declared that Bern never divorced his first wife and expressed belief that the situation in the suicide note in some "wrong" doing Alva Harlow, his recent bride, had some connection with his alleged marital trouble.

Bern kept a large sum of money with the New York Trust company for his incompetent wife's support and payment of insurance policies, the insurance man said.

Clark claimed he was one of the few friends of the film executive who knew of his former marriage. Clark, here for his insurance convention, will leave today to look after Bern's insurance affairs.

BROTHER TELLS WIDOW

By The Associated Press
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Sept. 8.—A conference between John Harlow, platinum blond screen actor, and Henry Bern of New Rochelle, N. Y., ended at 1 p. m. today without a statement concerning the apparent suicide of Paul Bern, husband of the actress and brother of Henry.

Bern said there would be a statement "soon enough." He expressed a desire to confer first with relatives.

Their conference was unattended by any other relatives, friends or police officers who have been investigating the death of the 42-year-old film executive, found in his home Monday with a bullet wound in his head and a nearby note signed "Paul," addressed to "dearest dear" and confessing a "frightful wrong."

Bern was given medical and police records of the case, together with personal effects of his dead brother, before leaving the conference. He said he wished to study the records.

Bern was to be one of the witnesses at the inquest scheduled to be held later today. Miss Harlow, who married the screen executive two months ago, was subpoenaed, but on the report of her physician, that she was in no condition to attend, was excused by Counselor Frank Nance.

Studio officials said they expect the findings of autopsy surgeon Frank Webb to remove all mystery surrounding the death. They stated the physical condition of Bern was an all-important factor in the tragedy.

HEARD OF SECOND "Mrs. Paul Bern"

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Officials at the Hotel Algonquin said today that a woman registered as "Mrs. Paul Bern" had lived at the hotel for a decade, leaving last spring for a divorce, leaving last spring for a divorce, leaving last spring for a divorce.

Hotel officials said Mrs. Bern received fortnightly checks from the west coast agent "Paul Bern," and that Bern visited her about once a year.

They said her tastes were quiet and that she seemed deeply religious, always having many religious tracts in her room.

It was said Bern, the film executive whose suicide is now puzzling Hollywood, visited her about once a year, the last visit being in October, 1931.

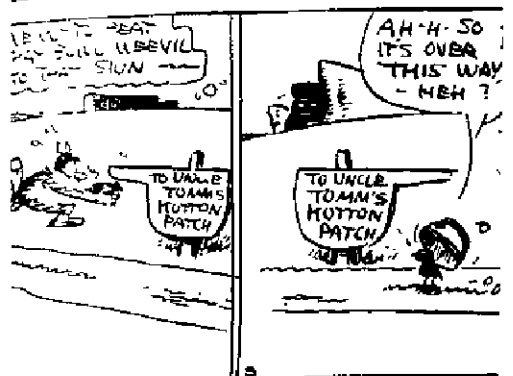

Very little was known of her despite the fact that she had been a guest of the hotel for a decade.

She was said to have had several roles in stage plays before meeting Bern.

Stories from the west that she suffered from nervous disorder which necessitated sanatorium treatment were received by hotel employees with surprise. They said she showed no signs of nervous indisposition.

DETROIT—A hole in his shoe led to a confession of murder by Frederick Terry, 28, according to police.

When shown a copy of his footprint, identified by a hole through which his bare foot showed and left on the floor of a filling station, Terry admitted, police said, that he robbed and killed Nagert Sabor, station attendant.

WOMAN RUNS TEXAS SMITHY

The village blacksmith of Berger, Tex., is strikingly different from the brawny character popularized in American folk lore. Mrs. J. M. Bradford, who is five feet, eight inches tall and weighs 118 pounds, took over the job when her husband died last winter. A former miller with five children to support, Mrs. Bradford said she would "rather show a horse any day than try a new hat on a flimsy woman." (Associated Press photo).

When a woman after 30 hasn't the energy she used to have, feels weary, gets tired and weak, suffers from indigestion and such headaches and doesn't sleep well—look to the gall bladder.

Your gall bladder stores and pours into your body the digestive juice that dissolves into neutral, non-acidic, healthy, quietness, and it also secretes the bile which is the source of all the body's energy. If the gall bladder becomes inflamed and swollen, it can't perform its duty and the body suffers. It's a simple matter to keep the gall bladder healthy and strong. This amazing discovery—pure that the air you breathe—plus magnesium, gently stimulates the gall bladder, neutralizes burning acidity and sweeps that poison-packed liver clean. Take two tablets when you eat—and before bedtime—until plenty of water—and you'll jump out of your skin for joy. Such new health! Such robust vigor! LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTES
"IT'S TOASTED"

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"

—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

Local Young People Turn to Stage in Show at Ohio

Professing no great stage experience but bent on making the most of a stage appearance, some three score Marion young people departed themselves last night on the stage of the Ohio theater in the Marion Folies of 1932.

Backstage they discussed their little mishaps of the performance, making mental memorandums of what to do and not to do at the next show. The young people all amateur entertainers of Marion and vicinity are getting a kick out of putting on the show and the audience yesterday was the first time that practically any of them had ever set foot on a stage as an entertainer.

The show will be presented through Saturday with a matinee and two night performances daily. A mystery story, "By Whose Hand," featuring Ben Lyon and Barbara Weeks, and a chapter of the serial "The Last of the Mohicans" complete the program. The stage show lasts about 45 minutes.

Jeff Craggen directs the show. Four production numbers, specialties and a finale comprise the show. The opening ensemble presents the cooks and chef, who sing of "Cooking Up Pleasure." In the remaining scenes, Fox Miller is chef.

Government Questions Will of Indian Woman, Section Bequeathed

Action of the federal government in disposing of the will of Lucy Lee, an Indian woman who bequeathed a section of land in north Dakota to the Harding Memorial association may prevent the association from obtaining title to the tract.

The government disapproved her will because it excluded John Lee, a brother of the deceased, at the government is now supporting as an indigent, according to a communication from W. G. Peterson, attorney of Pierre, S. D., to Hoke Donahoe, secretary of the association.

Whether the association will press its claim to title of the tract through legal channels probably will be decided at the next meeting of the Harding Memorial association.

Gasco and K. of P. Nines To Stage Series Fight Tonight

LOSER IN CONTEST WILL BE OUT OF RACE FOR PENNANT

Winner Will Meet Presbyterians Monday Night as Series Nears Close.

The process of elimination will continue tonight in the little world's series of Marion recreation hall when the Gasco and K. of P. nines clash at Lincoln park. The game will be called at 8.

Each team has been beaten once so far in the series and each defeat marked another step toward the pennant for the Presbyterians. The loser of the contest will be out of the race.

Judging from comments of most sport followers the Gasco nine should win. But the K. of P. team are always capable of upsetting the dope without a moment of hesitation.

The contest tonight is the all-important contest for the two teams. The winner will meet the Presbyterians Monday night. Monday night's game may determine the city championship—that is if the Presbyterians win. If the Gasco nine loses then another game will be necessary to decide the title holder.

Healed Bad Sore

Had it for 30 Years—
It Went in 30 Days

Had a sore on my ankle—
it was so bad I could not get on my feet. I tried every kind of medical treatment.
The sore was finally healed by the use of the second one. I am now a better person.

HAND LACE MAKING DECLINES STEADILY

By International News Service
PARIS — Attention is being called to the discouraging decline in the hand-made lace industry in France. When the few remaining lace-makers, mostly women in the remote corners of Finistere and the Vosges districts, have died, it will probably be next to impossible to find anyone to take their places.
Prices will of course rise and those who possess collections of fine old lace will be able to ask large sums for them.

High tariff barriers have made exportation practically prohibitive, the one remaining open market belonging to Belgium, a country which makes nearly all of her own lace consumption. Low wages are also discouraging the lace-workers who find that they can earn far more at packing sardines or other less artistic work.

SUICIDE NOTE

Unpleasant life in this world. Only way to make good the frustrated living. I have done you and to wife and my subject humiliation. I love you.

You understand that last nightmare only a comedy.

CIRCUIT "SHORTED" BY YOUNG ROBIN

By International News Service
NEVADA, 12.—The flutterings of a young robin, just learning to fly, proved disastrous to the bird and inconvenient to a number of telephone subscribers.
When a "trouble" man for a telephone company investigated the cause of a dead circuit he found a robin nest in a distributor box.
One of the young birds of a newly-hatched brood had fluttered into two wires, killing itself and disrupting the phone service.
